

Letter of Recommendation - Michael Bang

I had the pleasure of working with Michael Bang for 6 months where he took a role as developer and architect on our future platform for ejendomstorvet.dk. Our project is a Go backend application with the frontend being decoupled and static.

Professionally he challenged our ideas on the solution and left me with a good feeling about having a good solid and secure basis for us to keep building on. He has a good work ethics and is able to transform our wishes into architecture and code.

Michael wanted to learn and understand the real estate market thereby helping us challenging the traditional inside-out design.

On a personal level, Michael, is empathic and thoughtful and we miss him here in our small team. It was always nice talking with Michael about travel and actual news.
